

You can be a Runway Designer

The 8th Annual Ray of Hope Fashion Show, Luncheon and Silent Auction, a benefit for Women's Cancer Research and Domestic Violence Against Women is sponsoring a Runway Design Contest.

The TOP TEN designs will appear on the runway on live models. All designs will be available for viewing at the event.

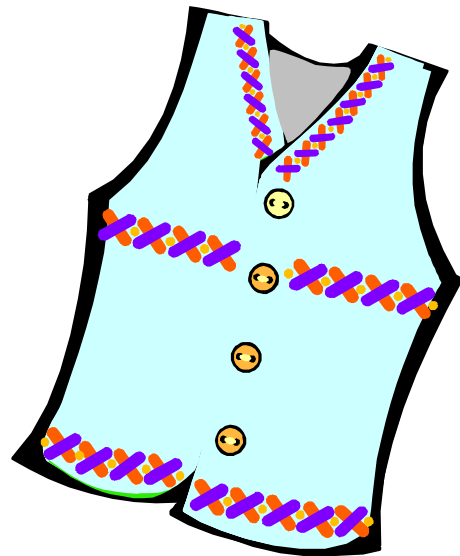

The contest will be announced on Cable TV from mid March through April 21, 2007.

All designs are to begin with our vest "canvas." You can do anything to it as long as it remains a recognizable vest.

The competition is OPEN to EVERYONE and divided into two age groups for fairness. The two groups are – Eighteen year olds and younger and Nineteen year olds and above.

SO,

Preschoolers
Middle schoolers
High schoolers
College
Professionals
And retirees

Show us your creativity

Call Ramona Mooney at 734-913-8131 for details and entry guidelines
Finished vest designs will be accepted through March 31st.